

Position: GIS Programmer/ Developer

Company Overview

The Sault Ste. Marie Innovation Centre (SSMIC), founded in 1999, is a catalyst for growth in the information technology (IT) and knowledge based sectors for economic development in the City of Sault Ste. Marie and Algoma District.

The Community Geomatics Centre (CGC) is a division of SSMIC which is dedicated to promoting and establishing the means to share data, knowledge and tools among community organizations to create healthier, safer and more prosperous communities. The CGC provides GIS and information management services to over fifty organizations including the municipality and public utilities of Sault Ste. Marie. www.ssmic.com

Job Description:

- Development and enhancement of web and desktop based GIS tools and applications
- Creation and maintenance of system documentation

Desired Profile:

- Working experience with .NET (VB or C#)
- Working experience with XML, HTML, Adobe Flex, JavaScript and ArcGIS Server preferred
- Experience in developing applications in Oracle and MS SQL relational database environments
- Must have excellent communication and analytical skills
- Knowledge of GIS (ESRI) is desirable
- Must be able to learn new technology quickly
- Must be able to follow directions with little guidance

Education: Computer Programmer Diploma, University Degree in Computer Science

Experience: Should have at least one-year working experience in GIS programming or a general programming role.

Contact Information (send resume as an attachment via e-mail to):

Name - Paul Beach

Email - pbeach@ssmic.com

This is a full time position with benefits and wages are commensurate with the candidate's knowledge and experience. Only successful candidates shall be contacted.